

He majored in Industrial Engineering at Seoul National University and obtained his Ph.D. from INHA University. He has served as the Vice President of the Korean Foundation for Quality, the President of the Korea Verification Association of Greenhouse Gas, and Director General of Social Responsibility & Management Quality Institute. He served as a Korean delegate at IQNet, the International Certification Network, and performed peer evaluations at APCER in Portugal, CQC, CQM in China, CQS in Czech Republic, DQS in Germany, HKQAA in Hongkong, JQA in Japan and SIRIM in Malaysia to verify regulatory compliance with ISO 17021 and IQNet regulations.

He performed the certification audits for management systems on the companies such as Samsung, LG, Hyundai, SK, POSCO, KT etc. and has lectured the Software Quality Management, Business Excellence Model, Statistical Quality Control at Graduate school of Information Science in Soongsil University and Ajou University. Currently he is training, as an International Standardization Expert, the certification auditors under the ISO management systems to Quality, Environment, Health & Safety, Energy, and Information security.

Dr. Byung Yong Lee